Technology Specialist (DEL Director)

WORKING HOURS: 8:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.

SERIES/GRADE: GS-2210-14

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

NUMBER OF VACANCIES: 1

Johnstown, Pennsylvania, the “Friendly City,” is renowned for its small-town atmosphere and family-based values. With a consistently low crime rate, short commute, four distinct seasons, and excellent landscapes, Johnstown blends the best of urban and rural life. Money Magazine ranked Johnstown the number one most livable region in Pennsylvania and number four in the entire Northeast. Besides being an excellent place to raise a family and its low cost of living, Johnstown has something for everyone from the sports and wildlife enthusiasts to the technology buffs.

National Drug Intelligence Center (NDIC) Mission Priorities:

- Produce timely strategic intelligence to support national decisionmakers
- Produce real-time operational intelligence to priority drug investigations
- Facilitate the sharing of strategic and operational drug-related intelligence
- Support the National Intelligence Strategy and the Intelligence Community

This position is established in the National Drug Intelligence Center (NDIC) Document and Media Exploitation Branch (DOMEX). DOMEX provides timely support to federal law enforcement and Intelligence Community entities by conducting document and computer media exploitation of seized evidence and other materials. The incumbent serves as the Laboratory Director of NDIC’s Digital Evidence Laboratory (DEL) and performs the laboratory management and personnel supervisory duties of the DEL. The DEL is comprised of information technology specialists performing digital evidence examinations in support of the mission of DOMEX and NDIC.

The sensitive nature of this position demands a person with the ability to deal very well with all levels of NDIC management as well as with outside personnel at all levels in the most demanding and stressful situations, while maintaining poise and the highest level of professionalism, expertise, and integrity. The incumbent must be able to successfully direct the efforts of others and interface professionally with DOMEX Branch personnel, NDIC management, and law enforcement and Intelligence Community officials.

This position is for an organized, methodical, detail oriented individual who thrives in a high responsibility and fast-paced environment. The ideal candidate possesses management experience, law enforcement and/or Intelligence Community experience, and computer examination experience with a technical knowledge of computer systems, networking, and software.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Please read this section carefully before applying.

This position requires a Top Secret security clearance. Therefore, applicants will be required to successfully complete a background security investigation, polygraph examination, and drug test. Revocation or failure to maintain a Top Secret security clearance would result in termination of employment.

This position may require considerable travel throughout the United States and some travel abroad. Candidates will be required to sign a Mobility/Travel Agreement as a condition of employment.

Candidates and their immediate families must be U.S. citizens.

Applicants must be within the guidelines of the NDIC Employment Drug Policy. Please read this section carefully before applying.

NDIC EMPLOYMENT DRUG POLICY

NDIC is firmly committed to a drug-free society and workplace. Therefore, the unlawful use of drugs by NDIC employees will not be tolerated. Furthermore, applicants for employment with NDIC who currently are using illegal drugs will be found unsuitable for employment. NDIC does not condone any prior unlawful drug use by applicants. The following policy sets forth the criteria for determining whether any prior drug use makes an applicant unsuitable for employment, balancing the needs of NDIC to maintain a drug-free workplace and the public integrity necessary to accomplish its law enforcement mission. Applicants who do not meet these criteria should not apply for employment with NDIC.

CRITERIA

Under NDIC's current Employment Drug Policy, an applicant will be found unsuitable for employment if they:

- A. Have used any illegal drug (including anabolic steroids after February 27, 1991), other than marijuana, within the past 10 years, or engaged in more than minimal experimentation in their lifetime. In making the determination about an applicant's suitability for NDIC employment, all relevant facts, including the frequency of use, will be evaluated.
- B. Have used marijuana/cannabis within the past 3 years, or have used marijuana/cannabis extensively or over a substantial period of time. In making the determination about an applicant's suitability for NDIC employment, all relevant facts, including the recency and frequency of use, will be evaluated.
- C. Have used any illegal drug while employed in any law enforcement or prosecutorial position, or while employed in a position that carries with it a high level of responsibility or public trust.
- D. Have sold any illegal drug for profit at any time.
- E. Are discovered to have misrepresented their drug history in applying for employment.

To determine whether you meet NDIC's drug policy, please answer the following questions:

- 1) Have you used marijuana at all within the last 3 years?

- 2) Have you used any other illegal drug (including anabolic steroids after February 27, 1991) at all in the past 10 years?
- 3) Have you ever sold any illegal drug for profit?
- 4) Have you ever used an illegal drug (no matter how many times or how long ago) while in a law enforcement or prosecutorial position or in a position which carries with it a high level of responsibility or public trust?

If you answered “YES” to any of these questions, you should NOT apply for the position. They are immediate disqualifiers.

In accordance with Executive order 12564, applicants selected for this position are required to submit to a drug test and receive a negative drug test result prior to appointment. In addition, this position is a drug-testing designated position subject to random testing for illegal drug use.

Duties and Responsibilities:

The incumbent manages NDIC’s DEL in accordance with the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors (ASCLD) accreditation requirements. [Note: NDIC’s DEL is in preparations for ASCLD accreditation application.]

The incumbent establishes DEL priorities and goals, formulates operating policies and procedures, to include reviewing and evaluating current lab operations modifying as needed to ensure maximize efficiency and that the DEL is in compliance with ASCLD requirements and with DOMEX and NDIC goals and objectives. The incumbent is responsible for the effective use and development of assigned resources and for providing leadership and technical direction when necessary for full and effective accomplishments of assigned goals and objectives. The incumbent ensures physical security, proper use and protection of laboratory facilities, equipment standards, supplies, and case evidence.

The incumbent provides effective leadership and manages the personnel resources within the DEL. Through strong leadership, management of resources, and effective mentoring, the incumbent ensures that all DEL employees are cognizant of their responsibilities to be effective team players and ensures that they are afforded training opportunities to improve their individual competencies.

The incumbent provides administrative and technical supervision and direction assigning work to examiners and support staff; develops training plans; evaluates work processes; and tracks personnel performance through observations, reviews, reports, and proficiency testing to identify where personnel or program adjustments are needed to meet mission requirements.

The incumbent establishes and maintains trade, industry, and technical contacts to keep abreast of new developments in drug enforcement, intelligence, ASCLD requirements, and best practices as related to digital evidence; and consults with NDIC General Counsel and federal, state, and local prosecutors regarding technical issues and the legal ramifications of examination processes and results.

The incumbent liaises with NDIC personnel and with U.S. Department of Defense, federal, state, and law enforcement and Intelligence Community personnel on digital evidence examination issues. Prepares and presents briefings on DEL operations and represents NDIC in national and international meetings relating to NDIC’s DEL and DOMEX program. The incumbent is ultimately responsible for the handling, accountability, and the proper disposition of evidence.

Qualification Requirements:

GS-14: Requires 1 year of specialized experience equivalent to at least the next lower grade level in this occupation. Federal government employees must also meet time-in-grade requirements.

Specialized Experience:

Experience that demonstrated accomplishment of projects requiring the examination of computer, digital, and similar media and equipment using information technology and evidentiary techniques resulting in the acquisition and presentation of computer-related evidence for investigative purposes.

This knowledge is generally demonstrated by assignments where the applicant analyzed a number of alternative approaches in the process of advising management concerning digital media, using standard computer forensic hardware and software, such as what system interrelationships must be considered or what operating mode, systems software, and/or equipment configuration is most appropriate for a given project.

Considerable attention will be given to applicants with previous experience working with law enforcement, military, and/or Intelligence Community officials on criminal investigations related to the exploitation of document and media evidence. The incumbent will be required to work closely with these entities on digital evidence issues and findings as related to criminal investigations.

Candidates must have demonstrated in their work experience or training that they possess effective management and supervisory skills.

Applicants with experience managing an ASCLD accredited lab are desirable.

Knowledge, Skills, Abilities, and Other Characteristics (KSAOCs):

Applicants who meet the qualification requirements above will be further evaluated to determine the extent to which their education, work experience, and training indicate they possess the KSAOCs required to perform the duties and responsibilities of the position. Describe experience (paid or unpaid), education, training, and self-development as related to the KSAOCs. Please limit responses to one or two pages per KSAOC.

APPLICANTS MUST ADDRESS EACH KSAOC SEPARATELY ON ITS OWN PAGE.

- 1. Knowledge of electronic media examination capabilities and techniques, including recovering of information from computers and other data storage devices along with the ability to apply investigative techniques and computer evidence analysis and methods for exploitation for investigative, intelligence, and evidentiary purposes.
- 2. Demonstrated managerial experience, preferably in the law enforcement or Intelligence Community computer forensics areas, with leadership and organization skills to coach, counsel, and motivate a staff with diverse backgrounds and experience to work well together within the intelligence gathering, analysis, and exploitation process.
- 3. Excellent oral and written communication skills evidenced by experience providing briefings and reports to various high-level audiences as well as liaising with high-level officials within and outside the agency or organization.

The KSAOCs listed on this Vacancy Announcement have been identified as necessary for successful performance in the position for which you are applying. The information provided in the application will be used to evaluate your qualifications for this position.

How You Will Be Evaluated:

You will be evaluated to determine if you meet the minimum qualifications required and on the extent to which your application shows that you possess the knowledge, skills, and abilities associated with this position as defined above. When describing your knowledge, skills, and abilities, please be sure to give examples and explain how often you used these skills, the complexity of the knowledge you possess, the level of the people you interacted with, and the sensitivity of the issues you handled, etc. Paid or unpaid experience will be considered. A consensus score will be calculated based on your responses to the KSAOCs. If you are eligible for veterans' preference, this will be notated on the referral listing to the selecting official for the position(s).

Pay, Benefits, and Work Schedule:

All federal employees are required by PL 104-134 to have federal payments made by Direct Deposit.

This position will be filled on a full-time permanent basis. Employees are required to serve a 2-year trial period in accordance with 5 CFR 752.401(c) (5).

In addition to competitive wages and excellent working conditions, NDIC offers a comprehensive package of benefits to federal employees.

Other Information:

This position is in the Excepted Service. It is excluded from provisions of the career transition assistance program. Because this position is in the Excepted Service, it may not be filled by a competitive appointment, and acceptance of the proposed appointment will take you out of the competitive service while you occupy the position. Upon being hired, you will be required to sign a memorandum of understanding concerning an Excepted Service appointment.

Your Social Security Number (SSN) is requested under the authority of Executive Order 9397 to uniquely identify your records from those of other applicants who may have the same name. As allowed by law or Presidential directive, your SSN is used to seek information about you from employers, schools, banks, and others who may know you. Failure to provide your SSN on your application materials will result in your application not being processed.

Before being hired, you will be required to sign and certify the accuracy of the information in your application.

If you make a false statement in any part of your application, you may not be hired; you may be fired after you begin work; or you may be subject to fine, imprisonment, or other disciplinary action.

Employees who received a buyout and subsequently return to positions in federal agencies, whether by re-employment or contracts for personal services, are generally obligated to repay the full amount of the buyout to the agency that paid it.

Employment may be denied as a result of information of which the applicant is genuinely unaware or by an assessment that an applicant does not meet the agency's overall employment criteria. A negative employment determination by the agency is final, and normally no specific reasons regarding nonselection will be made. Employment with NDIC is not a right upon which an applicant can insist. NDIC notifies all applicants, in writing, of the outcome of their application.

Appointments to NDIC are made by the Director.

Applicants must meet all qualification requirements at the time of application.

Relocation costs will not be paid.

ALL EXPENSES INCURRED BY APPLYING FOR THIS POSITION WILL BE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE APPLICANT.

How to Apply:

Please submit the following documents to the address provided in this announcement:

1. An OF-612* form (Application for Federal Employment). Completed form should include the names and telephone numbers of current and former supervisors. Application must be typed or printed clearly in dark ink.
2. A narrative assessment of your qualifications in terms of the KSAOCs identified within this announcement.
3. A list of three references who are not related to you. At least two references should know your qualifications and fitness for the kind of job for which you are applying; one should know you well on a personal basis. The person's full name, telephone number(s) (including area code), and present business or home address are needed. Providing this information constitutes permission to contact these references.
4. A completed SF-181* form (Ethnicity and Race Identification). (Optional)
5. A completed and signed OF-306* form (Declaration for Federal Employment).
6. Current or prior federal employees must submit a copy of their most recent performance appraisal (must be within the past 15 months from the closing date of the announcement). Applicants unable to provide their most recent performance appraisal must provide written justification for its absence.
7. Current or prior federal employees applying for this position must submit a copy of their most recent SF-50 (Notification of Personnel Action) showing position title, series, and grade.
8. Applicants claiming veterans' preference must submit a copy of their DD-214 and any other required documentation with your application package. To be eligible for veterans' preference, a veteran must be honorably separated. (See Note Below)

NOTE:

There is no formal rating system for applying veterans' preference to appointments in the "excepted" service; however, NDIC considers veteran's preference eligibility as a positive hiring factor. External applicants eligible for veteran's preference are required to include that information in their cover letter or resume and attach supporting documentation (e.g., the DD-214 or other substantiating documents) to their submissions. You must include the appropriate documentation in order to receive preference.

*The Optional and Standard Forms (OF-612, SF-181, and OF-306) are available in two formats on our website at www.usdoj.gov/ndic:

OF-612	MS Word	PDF
SF-181	MS Word	PDF
OF-306	MS Word	PDF

Please note that these forms must be completed in MS Word format if you wish to submit your application package electronically. These forms can also be downloaded from the following website:
www.opm.gov/forms.

Please submit all requested information listed in the “How to Apply” section of this announcement.
FAILURE TO SUBMIT KSAOCs WILL RESULT IN YOUR NOT RECEIVING CONSIDERATION.
Missing information will not be requested. Applicant qualifications will be evaluated solely on the information submitted in their application. Materials submitted as part of the application will not be returned.

Please do not submit your application package in a notebook or binder with extraneous information. Documents should not be stapled or paper clipped. Applicants should provide sufficient information to enable the Human Resources Unit (HRU) to properly evaluate your application against the Qualification Standards, time-in-grade, and/or time after competitive appointment restrictions.
